Location: Ottawa, ON

Resolution #: B19-12-06
Resolution Title: Funding Allocation Model for the Inuit Post-Secondary Education Strategy

Moved by: Charlie Watt
Seconded by: Aluki Kotierk

WHEREAS an Inuit Post-Secondary Education Strategy regional funding allocation model has been considered for funding of $123,965,813 over 10 years with $21,626,063 annually ongoing;

WHEREAS the annual funding will be divided by four categories: direct financial assistance to students, programs and services (indirect student support), community engagement and governance/national coordination;

WHEREAS the funding for the national coordination of the Inuit Post-Secondary Education Strategy will be directed to the Inuit Post-Secondary Education Secretariat;

WHEREAS the Makivik Corporation, Inuvialuit Regional Corporation, Nunavut Tungavik Incorporated and Nunatsiavut Government will designate regional Inuit delivery organizations (Recipients) on behalf of their respective beneficiaries; and

WHEREAS the funding for direct financial assistance to students (75%), programs and services (15%), and community engagement (5%) of the Inuit Post-Secondary Education Strategy will be directed to the Recipients.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT funding for the national coordination of the Inuit Post-Secondary Education Strategy will remain at 5% and be directed to the Inuit Post-Secondary Education Secretariat;

AND THAT funding allocated for Direct Student Support, Community Engagement and Indirect Student Support be divided according to the General Regional Allocation Funding Formula for two years (2019/2020 to 2020/2021);

AND THAT to expedite the flow of funding, that ITK, serving as the interim Post-Secondary Secretariat, receive Year 1 (2019/2020) annual funding and subsequently redistribute to the Recipients in accordance with the approved funding allocation model.
